FOREWORD

A memory of days past is a cherished thing in the hearts of us who have lived those days together. Such memories are retained for us in the pages of this book.

To you who read this, we say, "If the past is recalled, and forgotten classmates are remembered, then the Log has accomplished its purpose."

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

To the Administration we leave the satisfaction of a job well done.

To our teachers we leave our sincere gratitude for a helping hand during our high school years.

To the Juniors we leave the thrill of walking down the aisle for the first time.

To the Sophomores we leave the excitement of receiving their class rings.

To the Freshmen we leave the privilege of voting in student affairs.

To the incoming Freshmen we leave a year in which they may be orientated.

To our sturdy building we leave our invisible trademarks and memories to linger in the halls forever.

William Baker leaves his place in Beta Club to Everett Butler with hopes it will give him encouragement.

Joan Blythe and Barbara Stephenson leave their sweet, friendly and likeable manner to Mildred Holland and Linda Hagen.

Mary Ann Brett leaves her mouton coat to Winnie Pierce so that Barbara Jean won't outshine her with her blond one.

Shirley Burgess and Sandra Collins leave to get married.

Marie Butler leaves her athletic ability to Linda Holland.

Judy Carr leaves her sweet smile to Ella Jane Vinson.

Nancy Childress leaves her beloved spot as head cheerleader to Alice Smith.

Elliott Cobb leaves his zest for living to Dennis Bradshaw.

Jerline Cobb leaves her spot in Choral Class to anyone with a love for singing.

Kay Currier leaves her lovely soprano voice to Judy Dampier.

Diane Doughty and Dianna Stephenson leave Danny Balfour and Jimmy Best to the Freshmen girls.

"Little" Carolyn Edwards leaves her nickname to Mary Frances Williams.

Martha Vaughan leaves her polite and quiet ways to a deserving Jacqueline Blythe.

Pat Parks leaves her cunning ways to capturing boys and especially Lt.'s in the army to Brenda Bradshaw and hopes she does as well as she has. GOOD LUCK!!!

Bruce Stewart leaves his ability to play the violin to Joe Chase.

Jimmy Nicholas leaves his place on the superlative page to "Bo" Lewis.

Herbie Lewis leaves the road to Suffolk to Dean Wagenbach, since he doesn't use it anymore.

Nancy Davidson leaves her flirty ways to Sybil Bradshaw.

Eddie Frantz leaves his size and strength to Jimmy Rhodes.

Pat Goodwin leaves her love for music to Chirpie Branch.

Sara Vanaman and Leon Old leave their spot under the Maple tree to Mary Alice Hargrove and Oscar Gray.

Cecil Lowe, Clyde Parker, and Robert Stephens leave their seats in Mrs. Hundley's all girl homeroom to any boys with strong constitutions.

Charlotte Vaughan leaves her brother to Eileen Hassett.

Julian Whitley leaves----he hopes!

Mills Beale leaves his wisecracks to James Robert Beale.

Jesse Scott leaves his pea-green car to Buster Butler to add to his collection.

Glenn Faison leaves his dark hair to Wayne Dunn. We could stand a change.

Billy Griffin leaves his eraser fights in 4th period study hall to anyone with a good aim. OK! Richard Edwards?

Roy Pace leaves his speaking ability in English Class to anyone who is at a loss for words.

Joe Taylor Stewart leaves his office as President of the Senior Class to "Ames Christopher."

Norman Gardner leaves his car to Buck Bryant with hopes he'll slow down on curves.

Loretta Mincher leaves her haircut to Liz Arnold.

Annie Lee Young leaves her dimples to Jean Duck.

Hazel Shelton leaves her homecoming crown to Virginia Whitley.

Marcella Long leaves her well known walk to Meredith Day.

Patty Tyree leaves her naturally curly red hair to Martha Barham.

Will Macon Phillips leaves her crackpot ideas to Ann Phillips--Let's keep it in the family.

Patricia Kitchen and Joan Lowe leave their friendship to Lena and Linda Edwards.

Florence McGowan and Ann Scott leave their petite ways to Nancy Dameron and Gwen March.

Curtis Rook leaves his speed on the football field to John Brenner.

Peggy Howerton leaves her dark lipstick to Vashti Wrenn.

Donnie Eason leaves his barber clippers to anyone who can cut flat-tops.

Lastly, the Senior girls leave hope to Mr. Pond for next year's team.

Thus we the class fo 56 leave our most treasured possessions for future use.

APPRECIATION

The Annual Staff of the Log would like to express its gratitude to everyone who has helped with this publication. Without the kind co-operation of the merchants, the publishing of this book would never have been possible. The association we have had with them has been a real pleasure.

We want to thank Mr. George Harris and Mr. Eric Dentler for their help with the photography.

To our beloved teachers we say, "Thanks for your patience with the staff and for your gracious attitude toward making our Log a success."
